THE SALT LAKE HERALD

Published Every Day in the Year BY THE HERALD COMPANY

Terms of Subscription: DAILY AND SUNDAY—One month, 55 cents: three months, $2.50; one year, $10.90 SUNDAY—One year, $2.00. SEMI-WEEKLY—(in advance), one year, $1.50; six months, 75 cents.

Eastern Offices, W. J. Morton charge—150 Nassau St., New York; Washington St., Chicago.

The Herald can be obtained at these places: New York—Waldorf-Astoria; Imperial. Boston—Young's Hotel Chicago—The Auditorium; Palmer

Kansas City-Coates House.

Omaha-Millard Hotel; Globe News Co.;

Megeath Stationery Co.
Denver-Brown Palace; Hamilton &
Kendrick; Pratt Book Store.
San Francisco-Palase Hotel; N. Wheatban francisco—Palage Hotel; N. where lev News Depot. Portland, Ore.—Portland Hotel. Los Angeles—Oliver & Haines: Minneapolis—West Hotel. St. Louis—The Planters: The Southern

AN END AND A BEGINNING.

ET US TRY TO FORGET Peter Mor- army cannot afford to have such men tensen. He was a murderer. He in its ranks. the fate of the man whose blood he money in other lines. We do not be aught but surmise.

Why was the fate of Mortensen more fearful than the fate of his victim? Because he died a thousand deaths while his children; he died with his name un- that intoxicated them. tarnished, his character unimpeached, and this will be to them a priceless legacy forever.

To the children of Peter Mortensen and The There is any Body in the world what can be said in point of comfort? I your college boy would rather be Through life they must carry a dis- just about now than J. R. DeWitt, he honored name. An inexorable, un-changeable law will visit the iniquity of titled to a place in the 'rah 'rah ranks, Peter Mortensen upon his children and but should take his crocheting back behis children's children, "even unto the hind the kitchen stove and sit down. third and fourth generations." God Who is J. R. DeWitt? Is it possible knows these children have done no that you haven't heard about him? harm. One is a tiny babe that has Shame on you! Go away to some senever seen the face of its father, the cluded spot and sit down yourself.

week; he hasn't calmiy stuck to his would blot out a plague spot in the city's center. This for the sake of his children and his children's children who must suffer, however much we try to shield them. They will never be able to forget their father's end, but they can be made to believe that others have forgotten it, and in time the wounds that now gape wide in their breasts who wen it, just the same. First he

HANGING OF HORN.

I TAH WAS NOT ALONE yesterday in the upholding of the majesty of the law in the west. In Wyoming took place an execution that deserves more than a passing rotice, the execution of the assassin, Tem Horn, at Cheyenne. Horn was the most despicable criminal who has ever left a trail of blood over the pages of western history. A dozen cowardly, cold-blooded assassinations have been laid at his door, but for years, backed and shielded by a clique of wealthier criminals, he had evaded the punishment that was his due.

That DeWitt made ten. Just how the eleventh makes a remark worth remembering. He made one such last Thursday, according to several friends, it was during the Elks' parade. Judge Botkin and a party of friends were standing on a corner waiting for the parade to appear. The procession was not in the laurel crown that has been placed on the head of the mighty DeWitt by his admirers. The Herald is one of the mighty DeWitt by his admirers. The Herald is one of the mighty DeWitt by his admirers. The Herald is one of the mighty DeWitt by his admirers. The Herald is one of wealthier criminals, he had evaded the punishment that was his due. the punishment that was his due.

The men who backed Horn are, if possible, worse than was he, for they, though desiring to bring about assassinations, lacked the nerve necessary to pull the trigger. Up to the last moment it was thought they would make an attempt to rescue their fellow criminal. But they could not muster the requisite courage; they could not bring themselves to face the rain of bullets that they knew would greet their first overt act. And so Horn swung from the end of a rope, as he deserved to swing many months ago.

His evacution will be a greet thing for every American. But just for today, at the formulation of the day is the good, as well as the evil.

Five years from now the name of J. R. DeWitt may be unknown outside a radius of, say thirty miles from Princeton, And, by the same token, the name of some poor devil of a grind who never thought enough of football to leave his studies for it, may be on the tips of every American. But just for today, at the formulation of the seedy looking individual, "to see you on a very important matter. The question of one's inicage and personal pride in one's ancestry is becoming daily more absorbing-ly interesting. I should like, my dear sir, to get up your family tree."

With wondering eyes and mouth agape had of timothy out of his whiskers and said: "Well, I'll be damned. I reck-on that of locus that's been a standin' that ever sence I was a kid 'll do as well as the evil.

The trace of the seedy looking individual, "to see you on a very important matter. The question of one's inicage and personal pride in one's ancestry is becoming daily more absorbing-ly interesting. I should like, my dear sir, to get up your family tree."

With wondering eyes and mouth agape had of timothy out of his whiskers and suite. The question of one's ancestry is becoming daily more absorbing-ly interesting. I should like, my dear sir, to get up your family tree."

With wondering and personal pride in one's ancestry is becoming daily more absorbing least the evil.

Five years from now the name of J.

R. DeWitt

swing many months ago.

His execution will be a good thing for Wyoming in more ways than one. In the first place Horn will commit no more murders in Wyoming; in the second place, the clique that supported and upheld him has been given warning that it cannot override the laws of a sovereign state; in the third place, the country has been shown that in the more murder with the country has been shown that in the more many of the country has been shown that in the more many of the country has been shown that in the more many of the country has been shown that in the more many of the country has been shown that in the more many of the country has been shown that in the more many of the country has been shown that in the more many of the country has been shown that in the more many of the country has been shown that in the country has been shown that in the more many of the country has been shown that in the country ha so-called "wild and wooly west" there abides an honor and a respect for law found in no state in the Union.

THE PANAMA TREATY.

sum every year to the republic of Panama for the privilege of digging and operating the trans-isthmian canal.

Really, we can hardly see the necessity for paying out any money at all to the lobbyists or to Panama. If it had not been for the United States there would have been no republic of Panama. Surely the Panamans themselves can see this, and surely the

for a clique that expects to make a large profit out of it is irresistible. Of course we'll never see it, but that doesn't alter the fact that a list of the individuals who will share in this illgotten money would be read with interest by every citizen of the United

DISGRACING THEIR UNIFORM.

IT SHOULD BE POSSIBLE to ascer-I tain the identity of the soldiers Subscribers wishing address of paper hanged must give former as well as enough to two small boys on Thursday resent address. from Fort Douglas who gave whisky present address.
All papers are continued until explicit order is received to discontinue. All arrearages must be paid in every case.

In the make the boys intoxicated. And, having found who the men are, they should be dismissed in disgrace from the army, besides being punished under the law which prohibits the giving or selling of intoxicants to a minor. It is hard to imagine a more despica- in Utah, nobody would take the trouble offense than the one of which the to ask him for a statement now.

came intoxicated almost to the point of insensibility. Naturally, they made disgraceful spectacles of themselves. They were blameable, of course, for drinking the whisky, but they were not as much to blame as the scoundrels who gave it to them. The United States has paid the penalty. The old Mosaic It is easy in the light of such a cirlaw, "Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by cumstance to believe the statement re- | And the jam on the shelf was jarred. man shall his blood be shed," has been cently made by an officer of high rank carried out to the last of its letter and to the effect that the present enlistspirit. And, having paid the penalty, ments are mainly of an undesirable Peter Mortensen is at least entitled to character. This officer said that the the poor blessing of oblivion. His fate better class of men stay out of the regwas a thousand-fold more fearful than ulars because they can earn more shed; of his punishment in the world lieve that a majority of the rank and to which he has gone, if there is a world to which the dead go, no man can do criminals, the offscourings of red light. districts and gathering places for in-

James R. Hay died but one; because he Fortunately for the honor of the nation had before him day after day, week and the army it is a small percentage, after week, month after month a vision but it is large enough to bring the en- mittee of the firing squad; he had the haunt- tire establishment into disgrace unless ing knowledge that gooner or later his it is quickly eliminated. The time to end must come in ignominy, oppro- begin is now, and the men with whom brium, disgrace. James R. Hay at least to begin are the men who furnished the left no lasting heritage of dishonor to Salt Lake small boys with the whisky rest have seen but a few years, at most, Why, DeWitt is the hero of the hour. of life. But they will suffer as long as they live for the sin of their father gathered together, if they talk as much and their father's other relatives will as five minutes, they are sure to bring and their father's other relatives will as five minutes, they are sure to bring known mining man, were unaware until the grave closes over them. Therefore, let us try to forget Peter Mortensen; let us biot out the memory of his crime and its explation as we wreek; he hasn't calmly stuck to his terms with the muse, was his introduction to a Harvard graduate. Mr. Tarbet having in the place of the purpose.

A LATTER-DAY HERO.

that now gape wide in their breasts who won it, just the same. First he for all the world to see will be but gathered the ball in his arms and ran Dartmouth! Dartmouth! They're the ragged scars of which only they have leighty yards for a touchdown. Then he kicked a goal from the field, a long, hard, difficult goal, when only a minute or two of play remained. Of the eleven points scored by Princeton we are told IITAH WAS NOT ALONE yesterday that DeWitt made ten. Just how the present or to come, can ever hope to The men who backed Horn are, if find a place for their own names beside

The Herald has received a copy of the second edition of R. L. Polk & and law enforcement second to that Co.'s Utah State Gazeteer. It is a very valuable work. The book contains a complete list of state and county officers, including the various judges and You take the finest woman with th' roses members of state boards, the names An' ail th' birds a singin' in her voice THE PANAMA TREATT.

Imembers of state boards, the names of all cities, villages, postoffices, railtant the Panama canal treaty will be ratified at Panama some time between Dec. 7 and Dec. 10. The further announcement is made that the terms and land owners of the state, with the amount of their holdings, and a general classified list of all the practically the the industries and products of the woman's eyes.

An' all th' birds a singin' in her voice each time she speaks; Her hair all black an' gleamin', or a glowin' mass o' gold—An' still th' tale o' beauty isn't more the farmers and land owners of the state, with the amount of their holdings, and a general classified list of all woman's eyes. of the treaty will be practically the the industries and products of the same as those offered Colombia in the state. This information is compiled in A woman's eyes will sparkle in her insame as those offered Colombia in the Hay-Herran treaty. This means that we will be permitted to pay the French lobbyists and their co-conspirators $40-000,000 for the good will of a defunct corporation, besides paying a round sum every year to the republic of Pandone under Mr. Cooper's direction, and sum every year to the republic of Pandone under Mr. Cooper's direction, and sum every year to the republic of Pandone under Mr. Cooper's direction, and summars eyes.

A woman's eyes will sparkle in her innocence an' fun, or snap a warnin' message to th' ones she wants to shun; In pleasure or in anger there is always han'someness, a beauty that grows sweeter an' that all but glorifies—the processing of the company, which has offices in the Dooly block in this city. The work of compilation was done under Mr. Cooper's direction, and a woman's eyes.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

Once More. Old Carrie,
Old shout,
Old result,
Thrown out.
Old disturbance,
Old wall,
Old resistance,
In jall,
Old plea,
Old charge,
Old fine,
At large.

At large. and, having found who the men are, in Apostle Grant. He "had nothing to they should be dismissed in disgrace say" when an attempt was made to from the army, besides being punished

According to the statement of the boys, they were given all the whisky they could drink. That is, they became interested all the statement of the came interested all the statement of the could get all the exercise they need by staying at home and are all the staying at home and are all need by staying at home and preaching to each other.

The name Bunau-Varilla means a minister from Panama; not, as one might suppose, a new soda fountain drink.

Trouble in the Pantry. The butter had words with the lard; . They argued and wrestled and sparred, And both fell so hard

The moral of Wednesday's shocting scrape is that one should not pull a gun on a man and fail to shoot.

The incendiary who would attempt to destroy a fine, modern building and leave untouched several old shacks that could well be spared deserves the worst that can be given him.

District Attorney Jerome continues his fight against grafting and refused to permit Dr. Nelden to perform his ear operation in New York.

Senator Smoot no doubt is thankful to the Knights of Labor for their ef-forts to spare him the labor attendant upon a place on the immigration com-

In Gay Paris.

A well known young man of Paris
With two friends went out on a spris,
By the big freight depot
They reviled a hobot
And in no time he walloped all thris.

Utah is gaining on Kentucky all the time, a real mocnshine plant having been found in Washington county.

The senior class of the High school gave a dance in the Ladies' Literary club last evening.

Miss Ruth Carle Nation

Carrie Nation says she is a law-abiding woman and proves it by say-ing she has been arrested nineteen And what, may we inquire, has be-come of the gentleman who said the coal strike would not extend to the

It is barely possible that before the incident is closed, General Leonard Wood will wish he had awaited his reg-

New Poet Discovered.

Friends of A. H. Tarbet, the well

Natural Mistake.

Judge Theodosius Botkin frequently

An Unaccountable Taste.

The Motherlook.

(W. D. Nesbit in Chicago Tribune.) "As one whom his mother comforteth," -Isaiah isvi., 13.

selves can see this, and surely the Roosevelt administration can see it. If it was right to practically steal a part of a friendly republic for canal purposes, why is it not right to carry the steal to its legitimate conclusion? What is the use in making right of might, if right is not to profit by might?

To the impartial observer the conclusion that the whole nasty Panama constitutional properties of the danger to ask them for an endorsement.

There ain't a picture of it. If there was they'd have to paint a picture of a comman mostly angel and some saint,

An make it still be human—an' they'd have to blend the whole.

There ain't a picture of it. If there was they'd have to paint a some saint,

An make it still be human—an' they'd have to blend the whole.

There ain't a picture of it. If there was they'd have to paint a some saint,

An make it still be human—an' they'd have to blend the whole.

There ain't a picture of it. If there was they'd have to blend the whole is one of these amateur hunters would mistake you for the bear," remarked the courist.

Oh, that ain't where the Ganger comes in," returned the guide. "Slong as they from paradise—the member what happened to him.

There ain't a picture of it. If there was they'd have to paint a picture of a woman mostly angel an' some saint,

No make it still be human—an' they'd have to plant.

No make it still be human—an' they'd have to blend the whole.

There ain't a picture of a woman mostly angel an' some saint,

No make it still be human—an' they'd have to blend the whole.

There ain't a picture of it. If there was they'd have to plant.

Oh, in at ain't where the Ganger comes in," returned the guide. "Slong as they make him rise highter they'd have to plant.

Oh, in at ain't where the Ganger comes in," each of the sain't a picture of it. If there was they do not have to blend the whole.

There ain't a picture of it. If there was they'd have to blend the whole and they do not have to blend the whole.

There ain't a picture of it. If there was they do not have

SOCIET **************

Mrs. J. L. Franken gave the second Mrs. J. L. Franken gave the second in a series of teas yesterday afternoon, at which about fifty friends were entertained. The home presented the same bright and artistic appearance as on Thursday, and Mrs. Webber and Mrs. Richards again received with Mrs. Franken. Mrs. George L. Nye poured coffee in the dining room, and the young girls who assisted were Miss Webber, Miss Sherman, Miss Laura Sherman, Miss Terrell and Miss Katherine Williams. erine Williams.

A remarkable Grant. He "had nothing to ay" when an attempt was made to attempt was made to a the past few months in the city visiting her son and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilmer, will leave to morrow to eat Thanksgiving dinner in Utah, nobody would take the trouble

Dr. and Mrs. Pfoutz and Mrs. Charles Post are making a tour of idaho and Oregon along the Oregon Short Line. From Boise on Mrs. Alma D. Katz is accompanying them.

Mrs. H. H. Specter of Ogden gives a large card party next Tuesday at her home, which a number of Salt Lake ladies will attend.

Mr. R. M. Breeden has gone to Ogden to attend the alumni dance and to spend the next two days.

Mrs. Le Grand Young and the Misses Young will entertain today at a lunch-con, followed by a Kensington. Mrs. C. B. Diehl will entertain today at a luncheon in honor of Miss Dern.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Schick enter-tained a few triends at their home last evening on the occasion of their wood-en wedding. The P. E. O. society will hold a busy meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. H. McMahon, 40 J street. The society will spend the time sewing for the Day nursery, making the furnishings for some of the new beds established there.

Miss Phil Pointer arrived yesterday from New York and is visiting her sister, Mrs. Clinton B. Leigh, on First a few friends very informally Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wilson entertained a number of their friends at dinner last evening.

Mr. Dow McClain of Washington, D.

C., is in the city visiting his brother, Mr. J. C. McCiain.

Mr. Alma Katz left last evening for Boise. He and Mrs. Katz will spend the holiday season in the city, reaching here about the middle of the month.

GOULD AND MORGAN.

How the Former Secured Rockefeller's Friendship.

As the head of a mighty transcontinental rallway system that has inch by inch fought its way into the front ranks with its bitterest foes, and which gives promise of soon outstripping them all. George J. Gould is today one of the host remarkable and one of the least understood of those picturesque characters in that most thrilling of melodramas—Money.

But Gould is more they are the second of the second o

Money.

But Gould is more than picturesque; he is more than dramatic. He is tragic, for he has arrayed against each other two great armies of multi-millionaires. A move for supremacy—one way or the other—may lead to such a battle as the world has never known.

Soon after George Gould had obtained full charge and was practically dictator of the interests left by his father, he called at the office of I Pierrout More of the interests left by his lather, he called at the office of J. Pierpont Morgan in regard to the purchase of the New York & Northern railway by the Manhattan elevated road. There were some things on which the two did not agree; some remark was made by Morgan; words passed and Gould left the office in anger. In telling the circumstances to a friend, he afterward said that he would never again enter Morgan's office, and he never has. The friend, however, who had known his father for many years, took the young man to one side and said: "George, you are just beginning your career where your father left it for you to resume. Now let me give you a bit of advice. If you desire to be successful, as your father was, you should not begin by making powerful business enemies." Gould said nothing, but he thought of the matter carefully. He, had made an enemy of Morgan and he was too proud to make any concessions to him. The the matter carefully. He had made an enemy of Morgan and he was too proud to make any concessions to him. The next best thing, therefore, was to gain a powerful friend to offset the powerful enemy and he determined to seek the strongest man financially in the world. At that time John D. Rockefeller was one of the heaviest stockholders in the Union Pacific, of which the Gould southwestern railway system was a direct rival. Gould accordingly called on Rockefeller. He said frankly that he did not want to run the Missouri Pacific in competition with the Rockefeller interests and he asked the great financier, much after the manner in which a son seeks advice from a father, just how he could econduct his road and its branches in harmony with its former rival. There was something about Gould, something in the confidence that he reposed in Rockefeller that won his friendship. A harmony plan was at once arranged and from that time forward the friendship between these two men grew stronger. The more Rockefeller saw of Gould the more he liked him and believed in him. When the split between William and John D. Rockefeller came the business interests of the latter and of Gould were strengthened. Rockefeller millions began to pour into Gould propositions. An extensive system of expansion was planned and the Gould roads reached out toward the Atlantic and the Pacific.

Gould, realizing the importance of mak-

'acific.
Gould, realizing the importance of mak-Pacific.
Gould, realizing the importance of making strong allies and planning for the future, was quick to selze upon a circumstance that brought him and Andrew Carnegie together. Carnegie, who may be said to have changed the railway map of the United States, was engaged in a fight with the Pennsylvania company, which he thought was charging too much for freight. He had heard of George Gould's ambitton to bring the Wabash to an Atlantic port and he determined to use him as a wedge against the Pennsylvania people. Gould and Carnegie had several conferences, the result of which was that a contract was entered into by which the Wabash was to receive 25 per cent annually of the output of the Carnegie Steel company in consideration of a railroad being built into Pittsburg. The United States Steel corporation, of which J. Pierpont Morgan is the head and front, and one of Gould's bitterest enemies, has now that contract to fulfill. This one tonnage contract is enough to guarantee the financial success of the new line from the start, and the most peculiar feature of the whole matter is that the money comes from the very men who most strenuously opposed the entrance of the road into Pittsburg.

Lesson in Economics, (Chicago Tribune.)

(Chicago Tribune.)

Goodman Gonrong-Here's a item in this paper 't says two-thirds of the people of Mexico live without work. Less go to Mexico.

Tuffold Knutt-That shows just how much sense you've got. The people down there that don't work couldn't feed us, an' the fellers that does work'd be too dog-gon stingy. We'll stay right hyer an' let the ph'lanthropists take keer on us.

SATURDAY SPECIALS. THREE

MERCERIZED WAISTINGS.

3-yard waist lengths, worth $2.00, for 98c

Only one hundred in this sale. Fifty only will be sold in the morning and fifty in the afternoon. Twenty-seven-inch figured white and white grounds, with colored stripes and spots. One to

DRESS GOODS

5-yard skirt length, worth $3.75 for $1.75

Only one hundred to be sold Forty-inch, all wool chevlot, in black and colors. Fifty only will be sold in morning and fifty in the afternoon. One to a cus-

at Less than HALF PRICE

4-yard waist lengths, worth $2 and $3, for $1.00

Only one hundred to be sold at this price. Fifty only will be sold in the morning and fifty in the afternoon. One to a cus-

Women's Underwear and Hosiery. These articles show slight damage from service in window displays.

Underwear. 25c Vests for.....10c 65c Vests for......20c 65c Drawers for......25e $1.25 Union Suits for......50c $2.00 Vests for.......$1.25 $2.00 Drawers for......$1.25 $1.40 Drawers for.....$1.00 UNION SUITS.

$4.00 for.....$3.00

$5.00 for......$4.00

$6.00 for.....$5.00

note REDUC-TIONS

FLEECE LINED VESTS AND DRAWERS. 75c for.....50c 35c for......19c

WINTER SUITS--

4 to 15 Years.

Every garment is all wool and perfect fitting, and tailored like men's custom-made suits, in double-breasted and Norfolk styles. Colors: Browns, grays and mixtures, $5.50, $6.50, $7.50, for Boys' Long Overcoats.

$4.50 and $4.75.

CONTINUATION OF THANKSGIVING LINEN SALE.

An average of One-Fourth Reduction on Shoes. Avoid the rush by shopping in the forenoon,

New Fall Jackets. FIRST REDUCTION OF THE SEASON. Regular price, $17.50 and $22.00, for $15.00.

Flannelette Gowns.

Black Mercer-

ized Petticoats $1.25, $1.35.

Flannelette Robes. $1.25 and $1.50

Dressing Sacques.

Union Suits, $1.50 grade, only a few; while they

Glove Specials Napoleon Kid, French make; fancy stitches and in all colors and sizes. Regular $2.00, for—

$1.55

Men's and Women's Sweaters

All sizes and colors; about sixty in all. Prices $2.50 to $10.00—while they last, HALF PRICE.

DAINTY NECKWEAR.

Daintily embroidered collar stocks is the "Ideal," one of the fashions that will lead this winter. This pretty line, shown in our window, will sell on Friday and Saturday, instead of 45c, at 27c.

To-day's Reductions Men's Overcoats 20 per cent

KEITH-O'BRIEN COMPANY. -:-

Hotel Knutsford G. S. HOLMES, Proprietor.

New and elegant in all its appointments; 250 rooms, single and en suite; 29 coms with bath.

A food that pleases all palates - thisand more-----BEAUTIFUL  CHINAWARE

000 PRIZES

H. B. WINDSOR, General Insurance and A justing. 66 WILT SECOND SOUTH.

PRICES Night-25c, 50c, 75c. Matinee-25c.

Matinee Today at 2:15 p. m. TONIGHT, LAST TIME. In Convict Stripes A Story of the South Filled With Human

NEXT ATTRACTION: MR. JOLLY OF JOLIET. SALT LAKE PYPER

TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY. NEXT WEEK, Children's Matinee at 3.

Belasco and Mayer present the cream of all rural plays,

DAIRY FARM

MAGNIFICENT SCENIC PRODUC-COMPANY OF TWENTY-FIVE Prices, 25c to $1.00. Matinee, 25c to 75c. Children, 25c mywhere. Sale now on.

GOOD COFFEE

Is easy to say, but in the realiza-tion is a "will-of-the-wisp" to mil-lions of people.

ANKOLA

Mocha and Java coffee is just this—the best stock that can be found in the world's market, blended by an expert of sixteen years' experience. Try it.

Union Tea & Coffee Co.

14 East Third South Street. Telephone 974-Y.

Cildy Ann Again.

Mary Jane has bought paints -That is twice as long as Tildy Ann had when Mary had been doing so for as long as Tildy
Ann has now. How long has Tildy Ann been trading with us?
Eighteen years of good paints.

That's the Answer.

G. F. GULMER & BRO 20 E. First South St.

JOHNSON Tree House of Code of